Commissioner Herrold expressed that he was not comfortable subjecting residents to a tax increase with so many unknowns. She also noted that current debt service and upcoming fire related capital expenses are a consideration. Public Comment: Roberta Boffo of 1080 Grandview suggested additional grant applications and other opportunities to raise funds. Amy Mitten of 653 Mulberry St express concern that this increase is the starting point of a trickle up of the taxes like the school taxes that creep up a little each year.
