Right to Know Appeal

If the Open Records Officer denies a request for access to a record, whether in whole or in part, you have the right to appeal within 15 days. The response denying the request shall include the following:

- Description of the record requested.
- Specific reasons for denial, including a citation of supporting legal authority.
- Name, title, business address, business telephone number, and signature of the Open Records Officer on whose authority the denial is issued.
- Date of the response.
- Procedure for the requester to appeal a denial access.

You have the right to appeal a denial of information in writing to Office of Open Records, 555 Walnut Street, Suite 605, Harrisburg, PA 17101-1925. If you have further questions, please contact Eryn Arnold.

Respectfully,

Eryn Arnold
